It's Time to Plan for Easter

By Faye Jacobson

Easter Flowers

Each year we purchase cut flowers at Easter for arrangements in the sanctuary and the Gathering Place. There are envelopes in the back of the sanctuary that you may use if you would like to donate to the Altar Guild Flower Fund in memory of or thanksgiving for someone in your life. Please write on the envelope the name(s) you would like to be included in the Easter morning bulletin. If paying by check, please write on the memo line, "Altar Guild Flower Fund." The Bulletin printing deadline is Wednesday, March 27th.

Decorating for Easter

Saturday morning, March 30th, at 10 am, we will get together in the Gathering Place to arrange flowers and prepare the sanctuary for Easter morning. We arrange flowers for the altar stands, all the windows in the church, the Paschal Candle, the Baptismal Font, and the Gathering Place. You don't need to be skilled at flower arranging since few of us are, and you don't have to be a member of the Altar Guild. All are welcome. We will have coffee ready and breakfast bread or snacks. It is a time of fun and fellowship, and it is inspiring to see and smell our handiwork once we are finished.

Easter Sunday Festive Coffee Hour

On Easter Sunday morning we all come together in joy to worship and enjoy each other's company, food, and drink. Faye Jacobson does the organizing, but everyone is invited to help supply the goodies. It doesn't matter whether you bring something or what, but if you could give Faye a heads-up if you do plan to bring something, it sure would make her life a lot easier. Unlike Jesus, she frets over not knowing if there will be enough, even to the point of missing church to run to the grocery store. Thanks!

Website Update

The Coracle can now be accessed on St. David's website either by using the link that is sent each week by email or by clicking on the news section on the website. The realities of the newsletter business being what they are, occasionally information will come to light after the weekly email is sent. The website will always have the latest version with any corrections or additions. You may also access past issues, at least ones from 2024 (this is a work in progress).

Church Work Day

A hearty thank-you to Phil and Terri Sanger, Jake Jacobson, Judy Robinson, Karen Brown and Betsy Swift for doing a spruce up of the church property as we anticipate Easter.

Parish News & Notes

Melba Cooper celebrated her 77th birthday Sunday; all in attendance sang Happy Birthday to her.

What Our Students Are Up To

By Mtr. Gaelyn

The students and I met on Sunday evening for Evening Prayer followed by dinner provided by St. John's Sylva. After dinner we discussed food insecurity on the Western campus, how the students can be actively involved in keeping our new food pantry stocked, and their ideas about items to keep on hand to restock as needed.

The students are going to take on the restocking of the pantry on Sunday evenings from the donations left in the church Sunday mornings. Below are some suggestions they had. However, I can't stress enough that we can't mess this up! As long as we buy things that won't go bad in the outdoor environment of our pantry and are motivated by love we are on the right track!

The students also assembled Blessing Bags that can be given to people expressing need that both they and parishioners encounter in our lives. If you would like to have some in your car to use when the need arises, please pick some up from the Gathering Place. There are two kinds: some have women's socks and tampons and others have men's socks. All bags have snacks, deodorant, toothbrushes, and toothpaste.

If these Blessing Bags turn out to be something we see as filling a need in our community, we will solicit additional sources for the items needed to make more.
