If you would like ashes for this service, you may pick up a packet in the back of the church Monday morning or later. Here is the information for joining the Zoom meeting:

St. David's Day is March 1st

Greetings from the American Friends of St David's Cathedral.

We are pleased to announce that Janet Ingram, the Education and Pilgrimage Officer of St David's Cathedral has produced a Virtual Pilgrimage for us. It can be viewed by clicking on the following link: <https://youtu.be/0aAXE8utZJY> or by going to YouTube and searching for Virtual Pilgrimage to St. David's Cathedral for USA.

It is our hope that the American St. David's parishes will notify their parishioners and suggest to them that viewing this would be especially appropriate for St. David's Day. Perhaps it will whet their appetites to make an actual pilgrimage after Covid restrictions ease!

Church Walking Teams are invited to the UCM Walkathon Fundraiser

Saturday, March 19th, 1pm - 4pm

Jackson County Recreation Center, Cullowhee

UCM truly appreciates the ongoing support you give us throughout the year. Our upcoming Walk 4 Jackson can be a fun event for your members, especially if they form a team to walk. It is an easy walk around the Jackson County Recreation Center in Cullowhee, with recognition for most laps, most donors, and more.

If your church would like to have a team participate in the walkathon, just register them as a group using the link below. Registration is free, and everyone who is registered by March 4 will receive a free t-shirt, raffle ticket, and goody bag the day of the event. Raffle items include a gorgeous handmade table from The Magnolia Shop, a one-year family membership to the Jackson County Recreation Center, and more.

Walkers may either gather donations to UCM on their own, or the church can submit a group donation for the team (or even a special offering). All donations support UCM's food pantry and financial assistance programs.

If you have any questions, please email ucmsylva@gmail.com.
