Photo from Last Sunday's Concert

The theme of the concert was "Exploring the Affects," with the musicians asking the audience to get in touch with how a particular piece of music affected them as they listened.

Pictured are Dr. Lillian Pearson, playing the harpsichord, Dr. Dennette McDermott on the baroque flute, and Dr. Douglas Bakenhaus on the baroque bassoon. Dr. Bakenhaus is the music director and conductor at the Northwestern State University of Louisiana; Dr. McDermott plays the baroque flute with the Austin Baroque Society and is a retired professor of flute at Northwestern State University; Dr. Lillian Pearson, is currently on the music faculty at the School of Music at Western Carolina University and is also the staff organist at St. David's.

A Lowcountry Outing

Melba and Paul's friend Ifetayo who took them to the studio of Arianne King-Comer on Wadmalaw Island. Arianne is an internationally known expert on indigo dyeing. The day was a perfect Lowcountry spring day. They enjoyed hearing Arianne explain her process.
